February 24-26, 2012
 Miami Airport Marriott

RUSSEL LAZEGA JD

Russel Lazega is an honor's graduate of both the University of Florida (B.A., '93) and The Florida Statute University College of Law (J.D., '96, Law Review, Environmental Law Journal (Editorial Board), International Law Journal (Editorial Board)). Russ began his legal path as a judicial intern to Supreme Court Justice Harry Lee Anstead and later as the assistant to the head of company regulation for the Florida Department of Insurance, Legal Services Section.

Currently, Russ is an AV rated © insurance litigation attorney who heads a fifteen-attorney practice with offices in Miami, Winter Park, Dania Beach, Tallahassee and Tampa representing insurance consumers and medical service providers in pursuit of payment of reduced or unpaid insurance claims. Additionally, Russ is General Counsel to a leading auto insurer, The Responsive Auto Insurance Company.

Russ has written and co-authored several of West Publishing's leading treatises on Florida Insurance Law (Florida Motor Vehicle No-Fault Law & Practice (West 2011) and Florida Insurance Law & Practice (West 2011)), served as President of the North Dade Bar Association, presented proposals for insurance reform to the Florida House and Senate, been listed on Florida Trend Magazine's list of legal elite insurance attorneys and helped establish a medical provider's right to sue insurers before the Florida Supreme Court of Florida. But rapid expansion hasn't hampered this practices' small-firm spirit. They work in jeans, have a dog in the office (and on the letterhead), and promote an open, free-flow atmosphere that has helped successfully handle over fifteen thousand insurance cases and appeals throughout the state.
